

11.15-12.15 and 14.00-15.00: Analysis of books from Uppsala UL.

12.15-14.00 — Lunch

15.00-15.30 : Practical sessions with presentations by Malcolm Walsby (Enssib) and other project members

16.00-17.00 — Guided tour of Uppsala University Library

17.00-17.30: Hands-on session by Peter Sjökvist (Uppsala UL)

The day will be brought to a close with a business meeting of the Sammelband 15-16 network members

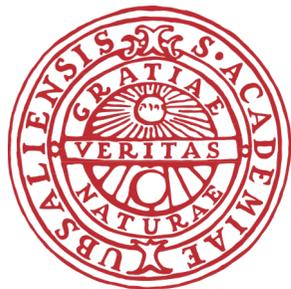

10th Sammelband 15-16 Event

Books in new contexts

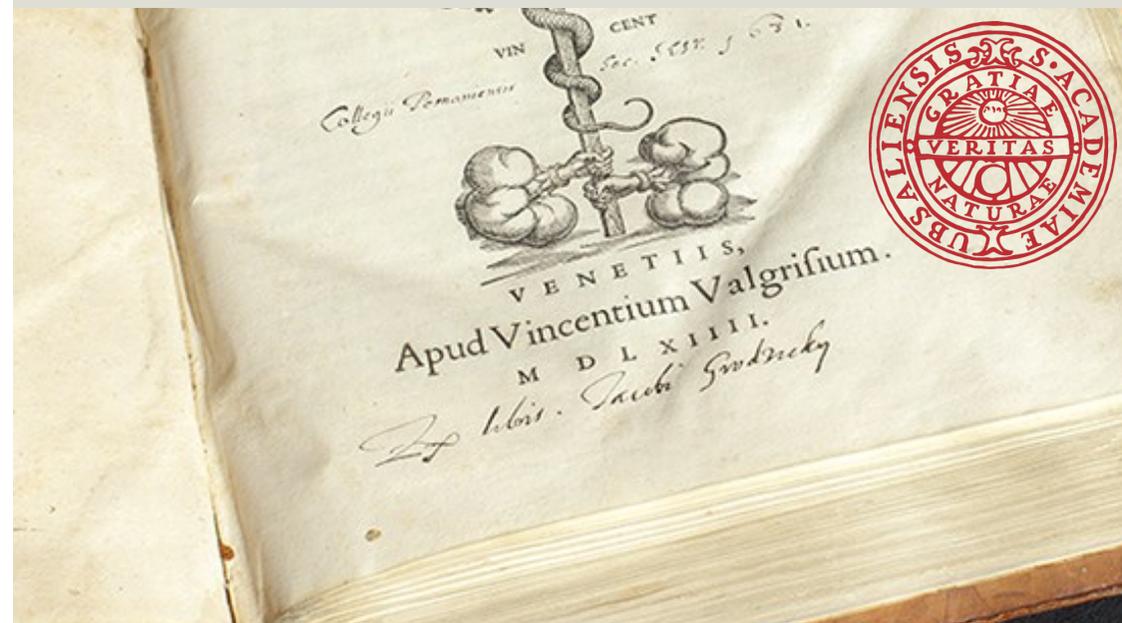

Uppsala University Library, 12-14 September 2024

Saturday 14 September 2024

centre
'gabriel
'naudé'

Visit of the library of Leufstabruk, one of Sweden's best preserved cultural treasures, notably famous for its forbidden and controversial books. The collection will be presented by Peter Sjökvist and Alex Alsemgeest with a comparative presentation of another culturally dislocated collection, the Fagel collection, by Ann-Marie Hansen of Trinity College Library, Dublin.

Books in new contexts

Uppsala University Library

Thursday 12 September 2024

9.30-9.45 - Welcome by Johanna Hansson, Uppsala University Library

10.00-12.00 - Session 1. Sammelbände and the Polish connection

Peter Sjökvist, Uppsala University Library, 'Looted books and Sammelbände at Uppsala – An overview'

Anna Katharina Richter, University of Zurich, & Rita Schlusemann, Freie Universität Berlin, 'Griseldis in Kraków and Uppsala. A European bestseller in early modern composites/multi-text volumes'

Jakub Łukaszewski, Poznań University Library, 'Sammelbände from the private library of the reformer Andrzej Frycz Modrzewski (ca. 1503–1572). Case studies based on volumes from the Uppsala University Library and the University Library in Poznań'

12.00-14.00 — Lunch

14.00-15.30 - Session 2. International exchange and Sammelbände

Alex Alsemgeest, Rijksmuseum Amsterdam, 'The composition of Dutch Sammelbände in Swedish Collections'

Katell Lavéant, Allard Pierson, University of Amsterdam, 'From Antwerp to Kraków: the pan European Sammelbände of Jacob Buyck (1545-1599)'

Malcolm Walsby, Enssib / Centre Gabriel Naudé, 'International Sammelbände and the circulation of books in the sixteenth century'

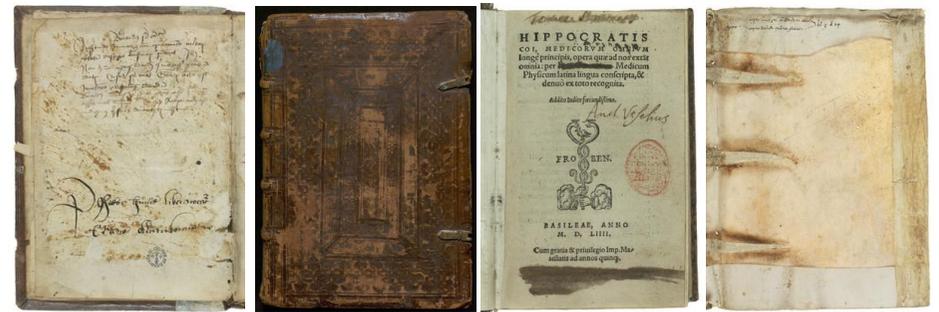

15.30-15.45 — Break

16.45-17.15 - Session 3. Case studies

Iain Fenlon, King's College Cambridge, 'An unrecorded Sammelband of early printed music in Palma de Mallorca'

Christine Chevalier-Boyer, Enssib / Centre Gabriel Naudé, 'Printing predications and Sammelbände: The dispersion and context of the first editions of Humbert de Romans's De dono timoris (1478).'

Sanne Steen, Erasmus University Rotterdam, 'Studying the reception of Erasmus through Sammelbände in the Erasmus Collection'

Friday 13 September 2024

9.30-11.00 : Session 4: Beyond the sixteenth century...

Ester Camilla Peric, Università di Udine, 'Phantom Sammelbände in Udine libraries: reconstructing historical evidence'

Morten Schneider, HU Berlin / Paris 3 Sorbonne-Nouvelle, 'Compiling political knowledge on the faraway. Gabriel Naudé's Sammelbände on colonialism and astronomical prodigies'

Alessia Giachery, Biblioteca Nazionale Marciana, Venezia, 'The collection of Apostolo Zeno (1668-1750): hints on miscellaneous'

11.00-11.15 — Break